

*We don't believe in law as usual
For us, law is inspiring...*

Our story

A number of years ago, we decided that we could change the way legal services are delivered. That we could do them better. At gunnercooke, we believe the potential of our clients and our people rests with our ability to free the law and make it work as it should. Today, we attract passionate lawyers and advise with authority: every gunnercooke lawyer has a minimum 10,000 hours practising experience.

Flexibility, transparency and freedom guide everything we do. Flexibility for our people to work how they want. Transparency of cost for our clients because we removed time recordings and billable hours. Freedom for our people and clients to achieve their personal and professional aspirations.

We work with clients that believe tradition is there to be tested, not obeyed. Working together, we help them seek opportunities and push the boundaries of what's possible.

Providing a suite of corporate and commercial legal services, gunnercooke is one of the UK's fastest-growing challenger brands. Proud of what we have achieved, committed to doing more.

Overview

What he's best at:

Jordan is an experienced dispute resolution and employment lawyer who works with both private and commercial clients. With a strong commercial client base, Jordan has recently focused his practice on providing 'business services' to commercial clients covering all legal issues that a modern day business may require. This includes but is not limited to drafting commercial contracts and terms and conditions, dispute resolution, debt recovery and employment law matters.

Who he works for:

- Commercial clients
- Individuals

Experience highlights

- Represented a client in a £1m construction dispute. A claim was made against my client for rectification costs and damages following construction works on numerous solar farms across the United Kingdom. In summary, the Opponent was claiming that the work was not undertaken exercising reasonable care and skill. Under the terms of a subcontract the matter was referred to Adjudication and a nominated Adjudicator to decide on the dispute. The heads of claim were successfully defended through the Adjudication and the Opponents claim was dismissed.
- Represented a client in a dispute surrounding inadequate workmanship on his narrow boat. My client had instructed a professional boat building company to extend a narrowboat he had intended to live on. The extension works were agreed and undertaken at significant cost including decorative work and modern installations. When the narrowboat was launched back onto the canal, it began to sink! Various repair works were undertaken by the boat builder but to no avail. A claim was issued against the boat builder and following a contested trial a judgment was successfully secured for my client.
