Expertise

Margaret has been practising in commercial property for over 30 years. She covers sales and purchases of commercial property, together with associated funding, development, Leases and renewal of Leases and has built a trusted loyal following.

All areas of Commercial Property, working for clients based in and around Yorkshire and across the country. She is well known for putting clients first and providing help and advice in a clear and direct manner.

She likes to see the whole picture of a transaction, and where possible, provide a one-stop shop of advice for clients, liaising as necessary with banks, accountants, surveyors, tax experts and planners, to provide any additional assistance she can.
