

IT Experience

- Major IT vendor in a dispute relating to the installation of a large systems project at a financial services company. Data stream £15m
- IT vendor in a dispute concerning a major systems integration project for a leading global mobile telephone company relating to their main product sales. Vodafone £40m
- IT vendor in a dispute with a leading UK computer supplier. Amstrad £10m
- IT vendor in a dispute with an investment bank concerning a systems integration project. BZW Investment Bank £44m
- Major IT vendor concerning the installation of a global pc/e-mail system for one of the largest global investment banks. Citibank £50m
- Major IT vendor in a dispute relating to the provision of a complete IT system for global network. New investment bank £30m
- Representing a major IT vendor in a dispute with a Government Department relating to the provision of IT systems. MOD £55m
- SEC Enquiry. Informix
- Major IT vendor in a dispute with an outsourcing company relating to a systems integration project. Vertex £30m
- IT vendor in a dispute with a telephone equipment manufacturer relating to a large systems project. Marconi £23m
- IT vendor in a dispute with a major global mobile telephone company concerning a large systems project. Ericsson £20m
- Major IT vendor in a dispute with one of their major distributors. Ingram Micro £20m
- Major IT vendor in a dispute with a large UK general services corporate relating to a systems integration project. Granada £30m
- Major IT vendor in a dispute with a Russian Bank. Value of 10m

- Major IT vendor in a dispute with a large postal services group concerning a systems integration project. Parcelforce £35m
- Major IT vendor in a dispute with one of the UK's major utility companies - water (FTSE 100) concerning a series of large integration projects. Severn Trent Water £40m
- Major IT vendor in a dispute one of the UK's major utility groups – gas, relating to a commercial venture. BG Leasing- £20m
- Major IT vendor in a dispute with one of the top 4 accountancy firms relating to a large outsourcing contract. KPMG- £50m
- Major IT vendor in a problem concerning a major product line in the telecoms arena, dealing with the dispute and organising a subsequent corporate buy out. £100m
- Major IT vendor in a dispute with another international IT services company concerning logistics supply contracts. £55m
- Investment bank in a dispute concerning a major systems installation. £40m
- Major mobile telephone company in relation to competition advice.
- Acting for an international conglomerate in relation to IT supplies and SLAs/ agreements in the logistics industry.
- Internet service provider concerning a large systems installation in the educational environment.
- Software/ accounting services company in a dispute with a major international bank.
- Advising one of the major international mobile phone companies on their global insurance policies.
- Acting for a software supplier in radio technology advising on a range of contractual issues relating to international and domestic sales as well as corporate governance.
- Acting for various smaller software companies on a range of corporate issues.
- Acting for a telecom's hardware supplier on disputes and trading conditions.
- Acting for a software supplier on a licensing dispute with a major international retailer.
- Acting for a software supplier on a variety of issues including the licensing of their software in various integration projects.
- Large French IT supplier in the logistics industry concerning a major integration project in the UK.
- Large international French bank in relation to a systems dispute.

- Leading international clothing manufacturer in relation to a systems dispute.
- Conflicts of Law advice on international IT disputes.
- Work for the Lloyd's E&O steering Group during Lloyd's R&R led to designing and implementing a new and unique computer software programme which revolutionised the management, operation and strategic planning of the 60 litigation cases that were running and the overall game plan itself leading to a very successful outcome.
- Advising numerous start-ups and established companies on the application of new technologies and disruptive techniques in their industries: covering finance, insurance, manufacturing, commerce, transport, education, food distribution, retail, travel, art, sport and scientific research, as well as pure AI, Blockchain, AR and VR companies on the development and application of their products including raising funds, legal matters, regulatory requirements, corporate governance and IP issues.
- Cryptocurrency Litigation – High Court – leading case (2024) - D'Aloia v Persons Unknown Category A and Others [2024] EWHC 2342 (Ch); [2025] 1WLR 821
- AI Litigation (2025)